A Time of Confession and Assurance

Leader: Father, you have called us to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly before you.

People: We confess we are often indifferent to the injustice around us and allow other things to crowd your priorities out of our lives.

Leader: You, Lord, defend the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and love the immigrant, poor, and oppressed.

People: Give us the compassion to do likewise and to treat everyone with the respect and dignity they deserve because they are created in your image.

Leader: You have called us to be your light wherever there is darkness, and to seek peace and welfare.

People: Make us, O Lord, an instrument of your peace.

Leader: Thank you, Lord Jesus, that you did not remain silent and distant but came to our broken world as the living Word to bring the beauty of your justice. Though you are the Prince of Peace, you exchanged the riches of glory for poverty. And you--the Righteous One--accepted the judgment we deserve, so that through your poverty we might become spiritually rich.

People: We marvel that you sacrificed everything to alleviate our poverty. Because of your mercy, we know the freedom of forgiveness and the wealth of your love. Melt our hearts with the wonder of this truth that we might walk humbly with you and lay down our lives for others. And may justice roll down like a river, as your kingdom comes on earth as it is in heaven. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

As you pray this week, please remember these people:

- Carlie Jansen, as she continues with the trial treatment.
- Laura Ten Pass, as she continues with cancer treatments.
- Brenda Merhalski, as she is dealing with lung cancer.

It can be easy to forget about those that we don't see every week, so we are including a list of shut-ins within our congregation. We hope that you will take some time to visit, send cards, and pray for these members of our family. As Romans 12:10 says, "Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves."

- Wilma Navis
- Jeanette Tjepkema

Jeanette's Tjepkema's 90th birthday is on January 27. Let's fill her room with birthday greetings from First CRC. If you can't find your church directory, her address is Randolph Health Center, 502 S High St, Randolph, WI 53956.
